Council Member Brost Opened Meeting

- Minutes approved from 12.14.21 & Special Meeting 12.30.21 by Councilman Brody and second by Councilman Brost

Police Department – Coltin Clark-Present

- Nothing to report at this time

Fire Department - Chief Kyle Brost-Present

- Be looking for info on upcoming breakfast fundraiser this spring

Water – Jim Turner-Present

- Same routine with it being cold, snow plow is complete, looks good

Waste Water - Travis Barrett-Present

- Generator has thrown a code. Currently, not working, Houston Electric will be coming out to look at it

Park – Jake Martin-Present

- Park has no heaters so it's been quiet down there
- Councilman Brost inquired about what happened to our garland and lights that Rotary took down; Brost will inquire

New Business

- BF&S-Dave Buck-CCMG Grant-prepared rough draft of grant for Spies St. Since it is under $50,000, it is a quote and not up for bid.
- Republic Services-Anthony Moore-our locked in rates are good until July 31, 2022 after that, Republic can do an increase. With economy as it is, prices are going up. Tony has recommended a 3.5% increase. Clerk, Donna Musenbrock, proposed to meet in the middle with a 3% increase. Tony accepted but informed, he could not go any lower. Councilman Brost agreed upon price increase with Brody agreeing.

Old Business-No old business to report

Patron Comments/Concerns-Clerk, Donna Musenbrock, suggested having a special meeting at end of month to start working on cleaning and updating old ordinances
